ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA AT BIRMINGHAM DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

In a relatively short time, the UAB Department of Music has distinguished itself as one of the finest centers for educating young musicians in the Southeast. Faculty and students perform in the acclaimed Alys Stephens Performing Arts Center (with its four performing venues) and around the globe. The UAB Department of Music is the first program in the state of Alabama to be designated an All-Steinway School, making the department one of the elite 230 schools worldwide so named by piano maker Steinway & Sons. UAB is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music.

ABOUT THE JOHN LENNON EDUCATIONAL TOUR BUS

The John Lennon Educational Tour Bus is the premiere non-profit mobile recording facility that provides hands-on experiences for students of all ages. In its 27th year of touring, the Lennon Bus features a Dolby Atmos studio with the latest audio and video technology, gear and products. The concept began as an offshoot of the John Lennon Songwriting Contest, dedicated to providing opportunities for both professional and amateur songwriters around the world; proceeds from which help support the Lennon Bus. The Lennon Bus travels across the U.S. and Canada year-round, providing free tours and workshops at schools, colleges and universities, festivals, on tours with headlining artists, and at major industry conferences. Lennon Bus Europe began providing these same opportunities to the young people of Europe when it launched in Liverpool, UK in May 2013. The Lennon Bus is made possible by Yoko Ono Lennon and the following sponsors and contributors: Apple, Inc., Dolby Creator Lab, Full Compass Systems, Battle Born Batteries, NAMM Foundation, Sony, Taylor Guitars, Audio-Technica, Genelec, Apogee, Roland, PRS Guitars, Triad-Orbit, Reason Studios,

Solid State Logic, Neutrik, Blackmagic Design, Grace Design, Avid, PSP Audioware, Antares, Native Instruments, Universal Audio, and Flock Audio.
