

GRAMMY MUSEUM® EXPANDS GRAMMY CAMP® TO NASHVILLE BEGINNING SUMMER 2026, IN ADDITION TO ITS LOS ANGELES, MIAMI, AND NEW YORK CAMPS

WHAT:

The GRAMMY Museum® continues its expansion of GRAMMY Camp®, a prestigious program for high school students eager to pursue careers in the music industry. Starting in summer 2026, GRAMMY Camp will be held in Nashville, in addition to its Los Angeles, Miami and New York camps. The expansion aims to make the one-of-a-kind music industry immersive experience more accessible to students from all over the country, furthering the program's mission to educate and inspire the next generation of music professionals.

WHO:

GRAMMY Camp is a national music industry program for high school students interested in having a career in music. Students from across the country will have the opportunity to apply for a variety of GRAMMY Camp programs. Led by GRAMMY Camp faculty of music industry professionals, GRAMMY® nominees and winners, GRAMMY Camp is the industry's only summer camp dedicated to providing students valuable insight from real-world music makers to give campers the best chance at achieving success in their chosen career.

GRAMMY Camp NASHVILLE is a seven-day, non-residential immersive music industry program designed for high school students who already have foundational skills and knowledge in music and are ready to expand their expertise toward career preparation and offers instruction across multiple career tracks including Music Business, Instrumental Performance, Music Production, Songwriting, and Vocal Performance.

GRAMMY Camp MIAMI is a five-day, non-residential immersive, fast-paced program designed to give high school students a hands-on introduction to the music industry and emphasizes active participation and learning in one of the three tracks: Music Production, Singer-Songwriter or Music Business.

GRAMMY Camp LOS ANGELES is a seven-day, non-residential intensive program for high school students with strong proficiency in multiple areas of music and the music industry, including music business, production, songwriting, and instrumental or vocal performance. Students are placed into cohorts where every subject area is represented, creating a collaborative environment that mirrors real-world music industry teams.

GRAMMY Camp NEW YORK is a seven-day, non-residential immersive music industry program designed for high school students who already have foundational skills and knowledge in music and are ready to expand their expertise toward career preparation. It offers instruction across multiple career tracks including Music Business, Instrumental Performance, Music Production, and Singer-Songwriter. Additional specialized tracks in Musical Theater and Jazz are also offered.

WHEN:

The 2026 GRAMMY Camp season will take place at the following locations:

- GRAMMY Camp Nashville will be held at Belmont University's Music Row facility at 34 Music Square East from May 31 to June 6, 2026.
- GRAMMY Camp Miami will be held at Art House Studios from June 23 to June 27, 2026.
- GRAMMY Camp Los Angeles will be held from July 12 to July 18, 2026.
- GRAMMY Camp New York will be held from August 2 to August 8, 2026.

WHERE:

Applications for GRAMMY Camp 2026 are now open to high school students across the country. Students interested in applying can visit <https://grammycamp.com/> for more details.

ABOUT THE GRAMMY MUSEUM

The GRAMMY Museum is a nonprofit organization dedicated to celebrating and exploring music from yesterday and today to inspire the music of tomorrow through exhibits, education, grants, preservation initiatives, and public programming. Paying tribute to our collective musical heritage, the Museum values and celebrates the dynamic connection in people's diverse backgrounds and music's many genres, telling stories that inspire us, and creative expression that leads change in our industry.

For more information, visit www.grammymuseum.org, "like" the GRAMMY Museum on Facebook, and follow @GRAMMYMuseum on Twitter, Instagram and TikTok.

###

CONTACTS

Jasmine Lywen-Dill

Sr. Director of Communications

T. 213.725.5703

jlywen-dill@grammymuseum.org