GRAMMY MUSEUM® PRESENTS

TAEMIN: Performer. Artist. Icon

DISPLAY SHOWCASES TWO DISTINCTIVE STAGE OUTFITS AND ARTIFACTS

LOS ANGELES (Thursday, March 19, 2026) — Due to popular demand, The Grammy Museum® presents TAEMIN: Performer. Artist. Icon has been extended through June 22, 2026. The exhibit opened on April 1, 2026 and showcases two of the artist's distinctive stage outfits and artifacts, celebrating one of K-pop's most influential and enduring performers.

To have an exhibit at the Grammy Museum is already a huge honor, and to have it extended is beyond wildest dreams," said TAEMIN. "I'm so grateful the exhibit has resonated with fans, whose support means so much to me on this incredible journey."

Widely regarded as a trailblazer in K-pop, TAEMIN first rose to international prominence as a member of SHINee before establishing himself as a powerhouse solo artist known for his genre-defying music, innovative choreography, and cinematic visual style. The exhibit offers fans a rare opportunity to experience up close the artistry and fashion that have helped define TAEMIN's impact on global pop culture.

"TAEMIN is a truly influential artist whose impact extends far beyond the stage," said Kelsey Goelz, Grammy Museum curator. "His distinctive performances, innovative style and artistic vision have helped shape the global rise of K-pop. We're honored to showcase these iconic stage outfits and artifacts that celebrate his artistry and cultural impact."

"TAEMIN is a one-of-a-kind artist whose expressive performance style and distinct artistry have been instrumental in the global growth of K-pop," said Kelsey Goelz, Grammy Museum curator. "We look forward to welcoming fans and visitors to the museum to experience TAEMIN's iconic stage costumes and artifacts up close and personal."

Since his debut in 2008, TAEMIN has spent nearly two decades redefining K-pop and expanding the boundaries of the genre. He has released music that has charted internationally, sold millions of albums worldwide, and earned major industry awards. Through his artistry, he has inspired countless contemporary K-pop artists, earning him the title "IDOL'S IDOL."

TAEMIN has graced some of the world's most prestigious stages, from major festivals and award shows to high-profile fashion events. He recently wrapped up the largest solo world tour of his career, with sold-out shows across the United States, Latin America, and Europe once again proving his powerful global impact.

Exhibit highlights:

- Red and black outfit worn by TAEMIN during his Ephemeral Gaze world tour, 2024-2025
- White outfit worn by TAEMIN during his Veil arena tour and on the Kelly Clarkson Show, 2025
